RALPH LAUREN CENTER
FOR CANCER CARE

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH MEMORIAL SLOAN KETTERING

Brother-to-Brother Prostate Cancer Education and Support Group was found by African American men with prostate cancer in 1998. The group meets the last Tuesday of every month at the Ralph Lauren Center for Cancer Care and Prevention at 1919 Madison Avenue, entrance on East 124th St. 6-8 pm. This safe and welcoming environment allows men to ask questions, get information and share their experiences about Prostate Cancer from screening to survivorship.
